

Beautiful World

I was dreaming of a time when we could retire to the country and get away from the craziness of the city. Did we forget how beautiful the world is?

Oh I wanna go live in the peace of the country
For a bigger slice of the world.
Worn down and used up, oh but whatever is left
I will trade for a walk in the wood.
We'll sip wine on the deck, you can water the flowers
I'll work from my P.C. at home
And what a beautiful world it'll be
What a beautiful world it'll be.

Such a beautiful world
We could make this be
What a wonderful life, oh-someplace
Where we, could be free
What a beautiful world oh—oh
A beautiful world
A wonderful, Remarkable,
Beautiful world

Oh I'm tired of the traffic, tired of the neighbors
Tired of the T.V. too
We could sell this old house, jump in the car
And go where the sky is blue

And such a beautiful world
We could make this be
What a wonderful life, oh-someplace
Where we could be free
What a beautiful world oh---oh
What a beautiful world
Most incredible, Wonderful,
Beautiful world
