

Change of Heart

Looking back on my life I knew that I had some apologizing to do. I wrote this a month after my quad bypass surgery.

And I wanted to tell you

That the only reason, I went way

D Is because that I loved you

And that the truth is, I made a mess of your life G

G And I'm so sorry

You know I mean it

I've changed my life, baby

You must've seen it

D Now I search for a reason

To give my life

To something outside of me G

G Oh and I miss you

I really miss you

I need to kiss you Oh Yeah (Oh Yeah Oh Yeah)

D Don't want to drive to work today

Not really feeling good anyway

G And what, - I did, I did

And well it seemed like the thing to do D

And who's - to say - What is what or who is who G---D

Bridge G-D

G Unforgiving logic

Unrepentant reality

D Playing out like a movie

Problem is. I keep forgetting my lines G

Yes I'm a sinner

A real winner

But things are changing for me

Just very slowly

D Now I search for a reason

To give my life

To something outside of me G

G And I miss you

I really miss you

I need to kiss you Oh Yeah (Oh Yeah Oh Yeah)

D Don't want to drive to work today

I feel the need, to get away

G But now - the ques - tion is

Is my heart gonna see me through D

And who's - to say - What is what or who is who
